

Melissa Brown

Melissa Brown is proud to be a born and raised Nevadan. Growing up in Southern Nevada and moving to Northern Nevada in 2006. She has been in a loving and happy relationship with her husband for over ten (10) years. They have a very energetic toddler that has shown them the importance of living an active and healthy lifestyle. Melissa is just joining the running community and she hopes that her actions will inspire others to follow in her footsteps. She wants to encourage families to be healthy, active and happy together.
