

Emma & America

America and Emma are the sensational sister running duo known as @our_happy_pace. As life-long Nevadans, they are passionate about running and racing in Reno-Tahoe. America and Emma may not be what you think of when you picture a "typical" runner, but if you ask them, they will tell you that's just fine. It is their joint mission to prove that running is for everybody and for every body and that runners can be any and every shape, stride, color, and pace.
