

Tammy McIntyre

Tammy has been running for close to five years and is very passionate about sports and the outdoors. Being new to Northern Nevada, she finds running is her favorite way to explore her new home and meet new friends. She loves running in races because of the excitement and nerves at the start line, the feeling of pride and accomplishment at the finish line and of course... race photos. Her favorite Desert Sky Adventures Races are The Battle Born Trail Run and the Dirty Wookiee 10K. She enjoys inspiring others to run, by showing them that the hard work is worth the reward of getting stronger with every step. She is excited to share her passion for running and the outdoors as a 2019 Desert Tortoise Ambassador.
